Former Socceroo and Newcastle Breakers goalkeeper Mike Gibson will be there to even further strengthen the Avala lineup against his former club St George at St George Stadium on Sunday.

The big names that Avala has recruited to bolster its playing staff are Greg Brown, Gus Cerro, Hugo Gimenez and Osvaldo El Ali, plus Craig Foster last week. And now comes in the burly Gibson.

There has been a downside, with Dragan Pupovac certain to miss the rest of the season due to a dislocated shoulder.

And now the mercurial El Ali could be unavailable for another three weeks with damaged ribs.

Dez Marton gradually moulded the Saints into a solid outfit, but he has been unable to compensate for the loss of Jason Van Blerk on Socceroo duty.

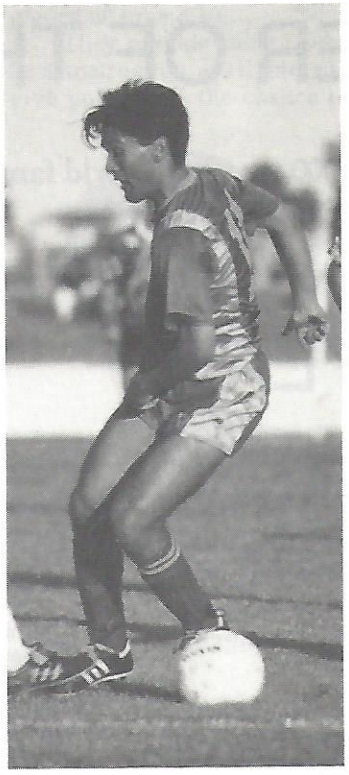
The biggest crowd of the round is likely to fill Jensen Park for Sydney Macedonia's clash with Rockdale Ilinden.

Expect a tight result, but bear in mind that Rockdale have been scoreless for no less than five of their 12 league games to date.

On the other hand Sydney Macedonia have the league's two topscorers in Scott Gilbert and Marshall Soper, and only twice has the team missed scoring.

Rockdale coach John Fleming concentrated on a long ball game last week, and maybe his aim will be to force sudden breakaways again.

Adamstown-Blacktown in Newcastle on Saturday looks an outstanding game. Adamstown have been going well at home, with only one hiccup when they lost to Sutherland.



Pablo Cardoso (Warringah) slips past an opponent

The Demons will not be giving anything away – and young Scott Xuereb is really on song.

Alex Robertson's Easts United have not travelled well. They are yet to win away from home, but will be aiming to repair their bridges against Canberra Metro at Deakin Oval on Saturday.

The Saturday game at Cromer Park promises to be a thriller, with Canterbury aiming for victory.

Unfortunately for them the clever Ken Slaveski is overseas on a business trip.

The Berries will be trying to put the clamps on Pablo Cardoso, who is equal topscorer for the club with five goals, along with Wayne Pierce.

On Sunday Sutherland Shire will host Wollongong Macedonia at Seymour Shaw Park.

On paper Wollongong Macedonia have players of the quality to rival even Avala.

They have the capacity to win this one, but it would not be wise to underestimate the fortitude of the Soccer Sharks.

Leading the Super League ladder are Warringah Dolphins and Avala, both on 27 points, with only a three goal superior goal difference for the Dolphins separating these two strong sides.

Blacktown (24) are only one win behind, and Adamstown have excelled by exceeding their budget by reaching 22 points. Sydney Macedonia have 20.

Premiers Sutherland must surge forward to be Top Five members, and the game against the Wollongong Macedonia side will be a huge test of their character.

Golden Boot Award

Sydney Macedonia's Scott Gilbert shot away to an early lead, recording nine goals in the first six games.

His scoring feats then became more subdued, especially as he was carrying a slight hamstring pull.

Strong as a bull in the old centre-forward style, he heads the Patrick Golden Boot Award ladder with 11 goals from 12 games.

Marshall Soper has reached eight with two first half goals against Canterbury.

Young Glen Johnson's touch has brought him six goals for St George, whilst Randell Easthorpe is proving his value at Blacktown City, and is also on six.

With ten rounds remaining, the battle has been joined to decide the 1992 NSW Super League top marksman. Who will it ultimately be?

OLYROO STARS ON NSW SCHOOLS CIRCUIT

By ROBERT WHEATLEY, Schools Development Officer

Be on the lookout for visiting Olyroo stars in your local school.

This is the bonus that hundreds of young players could experience in the countdown to Barcelona '92.

With only two weeks before an Olympic Games preparation commencing in Papendal (Holland) at the end of June, the players are now completing daily training sessions at Parklea.

This allows morning visits to schools throughout Sydney.

I have been flooded with requests for our successful Olyroo members from teachers and teams who are desperate to meet and train with the stars of the future.

Interstate based players have joined the party this week, and this gives readers of Super Soccer a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Have an Olyroo star visit your school!

The first five to phone, fax or write to me will have their details put into the promotional timetable for the Olyroos.

They are currently training teams at school or demonstrating basic skills to groups of around 30.

They provide some of the best instruction available and give youngsters the chance to meet Olyroos such as David Seal, Brad Maloney, Steve Refenes and John Gibson.

The promotion of Olyroo members Ned Zelic, John Filan and Milan Blagojevic has to be congratulated.

Their inclusion in the senior side in the current tour of North and South America provides invaluable experience for the upcoming Olympic Games.

Practice games in Utrecht and against Sweden, organised by National Coach Eddie Thomson, will provide the competitive element of the one week camp in Holland.

The team flies to Frankfurt on July 11 for outfitting before settling into the Games Village on July 12.

The initial game against Ghana will be a cracker and the Seven network management is now committed to do justice to the soccer coverage.

Executives can learn a great deal from SBS's coverage of the European Championships, together with the fine job completed by them in the Seoul Games four years ago.

Those Games in 1988 were the springboard for Frank Farina and his European ambitions and who is to say several stars will not repeat his achievements.

THAT UNSEEN HARD WORK !

Writes STEVE DARBY

Over the past few weeks I've seen a great deal of 'unseen' hard work being conducted at the grass roots of soccer.

I was asked to conduct a goalkeeping clinic for the Illawarra Coaches Association by the Wollongong Wolves Development Officer, Chris James, and on a freezing cold night over 62 coaches turned up and it was a pleasure to work with them and their young goalkeepers.

Two days later I was at Parklea, which is always a hive of soccer activity, but this particular evening it was especially pleasing to see the work conducted.

On the pitch I saw over 200 young players being superbly coached by the Blacktown City senior players.

This obviously wasn't just a promotional night, it was well organised by the senior coaches Ken Schembri and Lawrie McKinna, with the young players rotating around the pitch.

Somewhere out there on that pitch there has to be another Ned Zelic!

It was also pleasing to see the number of kids wearing soccer shirts to training.

When I first started in this job, I joked to a journalist that one of my ambitions is to never see a young player going to soccer practice in a rugby shirt.

I honestly think it is starting to happen.

At the moment it may be a mixture of European, South American and Aussie shirts, but it's a big step ahead.

This hard work by dedicated coaches and officials is happening all over the state of NSW.

A goalkeeping clinic I ran at Macarthur on the night of the rugby league test against England, had over 50 coaches attending, and reports I have had from Anissa Tann, the NSW Amateurs Development Officer, have told me that there is great work being conducted in places such as Dubbo, Mittagong and Albury.

Portugal and now Holland are proof we are on the right path, and the hard work done at the base of the game is showing now at the top.

UPSET RESULTS CERTAIN TO CONTINUE

Writes KEITH GILMOUR

Canterbury Marrickville, Wollongong Macedonia and Eastern Suburbs United are really on the march, if Round 12 results are a real pointer to things to come.

The win over Sydney Macedonia was Canterbury's fourth on the trot, and prior to that they had recorded a score draw.

Wollongong Macedonia have been threatening to do better than the occasional draw, and against St George they collected full points.

It was in fact their first win of the season. With the quality of players at their disposal – and now with Velimir Kupresak added, further wins must be on the cards.

It is fitting to mention the pluck of Eastern Suburbs United, whose score draw with Warringah Dolphins might have ended with an even more positive result.

It all adds up to an intriguing further 10 rounds, until the NSW Super League premiership is decided and the top five Championship begins.

Avala 1 Adamstown 1

The addition of Craig Foster, after a period in Hong Kong and Singapore, further strengthened the Avala squad.

Greg Brown goaled for Avala right on halftime, and the class of the Avala side was showing.

The move had begun with Paul Benitez raiding down the flank. Tom Divljak crossed, Foster could not connect and Brown controlled the ball and hit it into the roof of the net.

Avala lost Osvaldo El Ali, and probably will be without his service for a number of matches, due to a rib injury.

Young Christian Gonzales did well and was confident in the air.

At the other end Adamstown goalkeeper Steve Dorman kept his team in the game, and with five minutes remaining Ross Wells held the ball up and then flicked it on for Peter Budden to calmly direct it into the top of the net for a score draw.

Wollongong Macedonia turned the corner last week

Eastern Sub 2 Warringah 2

It was Easts' left midfielder and man of the match Robbie Jerkovic who finally scored to present his team with that 2-2 draw with the mighty Warringah Dolphins.

And Michael Smith at sweeper was one of Easts' better players in a team that really settled to its task.

Actually this could have been completely an upset result, but in any case Easts' coach Alex Robertson has good reason to believe that his side will give a deal of trouble to illustrious opponents from here on.

Wollongong Macedonia 2
St George 0

Wollongong Macedonia celebrated their Saturday night fixture at Ian McLellan Park Kembla Grange with a 2-0 win over St George.

It has been a long time for the first real drink of success.

Seasoned campaigners Nowicki were the scorers against a Saints side that had promised a deal more up until Jason Van Blerk left for America with the Socceroos.

Canterbury 4
Sydney Macedonia 3

The Berries have made a complete turnabout following their disastrous beginning to the season.

Taming Sydney Macedonia is no easy task, but Canterbury did lead 4-2 to have a winning margin before Scott Gilbert scored for the visitors a minute from the end.

Sydney Macedonia lost Tony Avellino – sent off for a professional foul on Louis Dounis, and after that Canterbury player-coach Charlie Yankos was able to stretch the Macedonia defence wide and exploit the availability of his extra man.

Rockdale Ilinden 0
Sutherland 0

This was an exciting encounter, and Sutherland can point to some uncharacteristic misses by Grant Bard, and Mike O'Shea and Darryl Sharp hitting the woodwork for their lack of goals.

Blacktown 2 Canberra 1

Canberra opened the scoring through Fadil Muriqi after 37 minutes, with a corner that curved late and found the net.

Scott Xeureb figured in both Blacktown goals. Randell Easthorpe finished off Xeureb's cross with his head, and Xeureb volleyed home a waist high ball headed

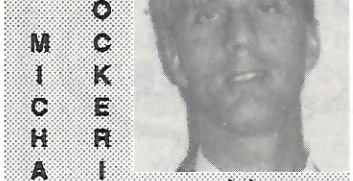
That says it all!

Mickey's magic and Warren's header



MICHAEL ROCKERILL of the Sydney Morning Herald.

Let's hear it for the Socceroos, who not only maintained our recent run of fine results at international level, but also quietened down those bellicose Americans in the process.

The 1-0 victory over the US at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando last weekend was no great upset, despite what the parochial commentators, among them former US player Ricky Davis, were saying.

If these 'experts' had bothered to background themselves about Australian soccer, they would have discovered that we are virtually on par with the progress of their own national teams.

Certainly I expected at least a draw, if not a win, against an American side which despite some recent good results still offered nothing for us to fear.

That is exactly the way it transpired, although I will say that our winning goal, scored by Warren Spink after a cleverly-executed free kick by Mike Petersen, came against the run of play.

No matter, however, and in the circumstances it was a fine victory for the Socceroos, who will have been heartened by the result with the World Cup campaign about to begin.

For coach Eddie Thomson, perhaps the most encouraging aspect of the win was that it was achieved with a side of largely home-based players.

Only Aurelio Vidmar and Vlado Bozinoski were on hand from our bunch of European exiles, so there is obviously plenty of scope for improvement should the likes of Frank Farina, Graham Arnold, David Mitchell and Robbie Slater eventually find the time to make themselves available.

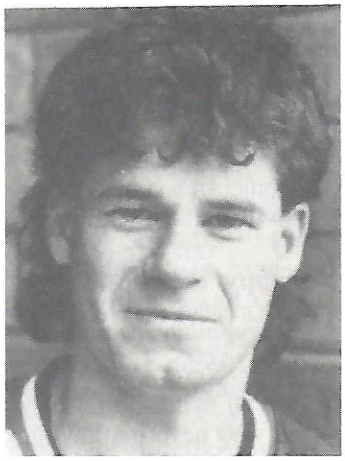
The fact that so many of the players who took the pitch in Orlando had not played a competitive match for at least six weeks, and that the 18-man squad had been travelling for much of the previous 10 days, merely added to the merits of the victory.

Against those odds it was undoubtedly a tremendous result, although we should not get carried away.

With matches against Argentina and Uruguay to be played tomorrow (Friday) and Sunday the Socceroos will certainly need to improve on several aspects of their play.

So just what lessons did we learn from the match?

On the positive side, the Socceroos confirmed what we already knew – that our defence is the equal of any in the world, with just two goals conceded in the past eight full internationals.



Warren Spink . . headed the winner

The hard work, and commitment, was also evident all over the pitch, and it is clear that nobody is going to beat the Socceroos easily any more.

The question marks, however, remain in two key areas.

Firstly it is abundantly clear that until strikers of the calibre of Arnold or Farina are available, the policy of playing just one man up front drastically reduces our scoring options.

While Spink, or Alistair Edwards, will toil manfully all day they are not yet able to lead an attack on their own.

Watch the European Championships and you can see that all the top nations continue to play with two men in attack – Papin and Canton, Bergkamp and van Basten, Lineker and Shearer, Reidle and Klinsmann – so why should we be any different?

The second worry to emerge from the US match is that the Socceroos still lack a quality playmaker, something that has been a problem ever since Oscar Crino left the scene three years ago.

Bozinoski was tried there, but didn't come up to scratch, while Aurelio Vidmar is better suited to a wide position.

At the moment our best candidate remains Petersen, although I believe Thomson will be looking seriously at either Paul Okon or Ned Zelic in the near future.

Greek-based Lou Hristodoulou is also in the frame.

On the whole, however, there was much to be enthusiastic about, especially as the team was so rusty.

I expect more polished performances in Argentina and Uruguay, and by the time the team returns for the three match series against Croatia early next month they should be well and truly on the right track.

On a different note, we can only hope that the television coverage provided by the US cable network is not a sign of things to come for the next World Cup finals, to be held in America in 1994.

Apart from the inane commentary and the dreadful camera work, the number of advertising breaks suggests real problems.

AUSTRALIA v CROATIA

The ASF will donate 50 cents for every ticket sold for the Test series to support the Australian Olympic Team.

Matches will be held on Sunday July 12 at Sydney Football Stadium, preceded by Adelaide (July 8) and Melbourne (July 5).

The ASF expects to raised over $35,000 for Olympic team funds.

SUTHERLAND

★ Every game continues to show that the decision to bypass the U17 Youth League and go directly to the U19 was a wise one for Scott Henderson and Martin Kovac. Scott has made the sweeper's spot his own with some great games, and Martin recently has more than vindicated the faith placed in him. Both are players of great potential and are certainly attracting attention as is the other youngster Scott Alexander, who signed after one season in U17 and continues to impress keen observers of the game.

★ Two other young players doing extremely well are Hannah Burton and Melissa Denning from the Sutherland Womens League team. They have been selected to represent NSW in the State U16 team. Congratulations, girls, from all at the club.

★ Injury continues to haunt young Brendon Groll, whose season has been disrupted by knee problems. Hopes are high, however, that he will soon be fit and making his mark again. .....BILL ELLIS

EASTERN SUBURBS UTD

Coach, didn't have one of those days recently...he had one of those weeks! It all started at training on a Tuesday night when he left his bag beside his car and drove off. Come Wednesday when he realised he'd lost his bag he raced down to Coral Sea Park only to find that the canteen had been broken into - using the keys he'd left in the missing bag. And then to cap off the perfect week his car was stolen!

★ Despite these mishaps, Neil and player Nicky Barratt have been busy conducting coaching sessions with local schools. The most recent visits include St James' at Glebe and St Anne's at Bondi Beach. Both have been surprised at the equality of the sexes in their level of skill at that age group.

.....KAREN GREGA

ST GEORGE

★ St George has acquired the services of Robert De Ceglie. Robert scored a great goal in the 19s loss to Adamstown, and it is hoped he can score a few in the first team when he is fully fit.

★ Congratulations to three of our U19 side, Chad Gibson, Sascha Giesen and Mark Nestorovic, for selection in the Regional High Schools soccer team.

★ St George Soccer Association held another successful A S Tanner Tournament for 11 year old representative sides over the long weekend. The eventual winners were Ku-ring-gai, beating Southern and Eastern 1-0 in the final. St George team was unlucky to be beaten in the semi-finals after being undefeated in

ADAMSTOWN ROSEBUD

★ Let's hope the Blacktown boys and girls bring their boogy gear when they play Adamstown. It's a 50s and 60s night at Rosebud licensed club after the game.

★ Dennis King found the net for the first time with a boomer of a shot. I'm sure it will be the first of many.

★ Special thanks to all players who have put the club into a very respectable position on the points table.

.....PAUL COLVER

BLACKTOWN CITY

★ Lawrie McKinna played his first full game this season in the recent encounter against Warringah Dolphins, in the Reserves fixture. After the game he was asked how he felt. "Fine," was the response. When prompted that he appeared to be limping, Lawrie said that he was unaware that he was. Apparently it is natural to look as though one is limping after a broken leg. Lawrie chased hard after some passes which went astray and then the 'limp' magically ball is badly missed by the Demons first team.

★ Promising young goalkeeper Andrew Crews has been loaned to 1st Division Wests Wanderers. He should get first team experience which he would not get with the Demons. It is to be hoped that Crews develops as well on loan as did John Filan in recent years.

★ A check on previous records show that the Demons 0-5 loss to Warringah was the worst suffered by the club at the Gabbie.There were NSL losses in 1982 of 1-5 on two previous occasions. Because the Demons are attack minded then against a team like Warringah, who play the same style, the result was always on the cards.

.....BOB BROOKS

AVALA

★ Michael Johnson , the club coach, contracted pneumonia, and says that he was forced to miss training for the first time in 25 years. Fortunately Avala had Mirko Radosavljevic ready to take over as acting coach and he did an excellent job both as coach and in his usual role in the defence.

★ Avala had a highly successful banquet, which was a huge social event as well as raising funds for club activities.

★ Bad luck for club goalkeeper, Dragan Pupovac, who suffered an injury in the last 10 minutes against Canberra Metro. His condition was thoroughly checked out at Liverpool Hospital, and he could be out for many weeks. Mike Gibson takes

WARRINGAH DOLPHINS

★ A number of former NSL players have been keeping in trim in their off season by training with the Dolphins. Jason Polak has returned to Australia, after helping his team in Holland, Degraafschap, to promotion to the 1st Division and is regularly seen at the Dolphins' training sessions. Craig Foster, older brother of first team member Stephen Foster, has also returned from overseas, while John Koch, who played for the Newcastle Breakers, is also making regular appearances on training nights.

★ The Dolphins, in conjunction with the Ku-ring-gai and Manly Warringah Junior Associations, are conducting a major raffle. The first prize is a trip for two adults and two children to Hawaii, while the other prizes will also be trips to various destinations. Any paying customers who come to the next home game on Saturday June 20 will receive a free ticket. The raffle will be drawn following the match.

★ The recent match against Blacktown City, who at the time of playing were only one point behind on the table, was probably the club's best performance for quite some time. With two players, goalkeeper Peter Gunning and striker Jose Iriarte away on NSW duty, to put five goals in the back of the Blacktown net was simply outstanding.

.....KEITH PESTER

SYDNEY MACEDONIA

★ Sydney Macedonia recently played a friendly match against the Socceroos at the Federation headquarters at Parklea. The national team used the game as a build up for the American tour. In an even encounter the only thing missing was goals – the outcome was a scoreless draw. Sydney Macedonia lifted themselves against their distinguished opponents, with Mark Reveley, Anthony Surjan and Craig Moffitt performing particularly well. Coach Frank Lang gave youngsters Peter Moon and Louis Contigiani their chance in top grade and both performed admirably.

★ The hit out against the Socceroos provided perfect practice for the important match against Eastern Suburbs. The team returned to its early season form with an impressive 3-0 victory, and the youth team duplicated the score.

★ One youth player to shine is Craig Holmes, a PE student at the Australian College of Physical Education. Craig is a former Bankstown and Sydney Croatia junior and came to the club last year. He has been a most consistent performer this year.

.....MATTHEW HOARE

WOLLONGONG MACEDONIA

★ The club welcomed to the squad Sydney Croatia Kupresak. Kupresak's signing will boost the first team's central defence, which has failed to stop the opposition's well-drilled attackers.

★ Paul Carter also was welcomed back after his representative duties for NSW. Although recognised as an attacking full-back, Carter has often been playing as a midfielder for the club.

.....BOB TALEVSKI

CANBERRA METRO

★ As mentioned last week, Marko Perinovic has returned from his stint in Hong Kong. He played his first game against Avala a couple of weeks ago and made a good impressions. Although he did not get himself on the scoresheet, he went close to scoring on a couple of occasions and also caused the Avala defence some real problems. It is hoped that he will be able to help boost the Metro goal tally, which at the time of writing was the second lowest in the league.

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE

★ After enduring an horrific start to the year, new coach Charlie Yankos is now starting to smile. And why not? His revitalised side, which is now back to full strength, has recently enjoyed three wins on the trot and are slowly moving away from the foot of the table. Harry Adamou has expressed his desire to transfer, after missing out on a regular first team place.

★ Charlie Yankos has also been taking a keen interest in the U19 matches and in particular three players from that team. Spiro Kladis, John Manolopoulos and Con Tsaousidis have been progressing nicely and are to figure in the team plans later in the season.

..CHARLES EFTHIMIOU

ROCKDALE ILINDEN

★ The club is pleased with the continued impressive form of the U19 team, who are currently on top of the table.

★ One member of the successful U19 team, Kenny Boskovski, recently made his Super League debut in the match against Wollongong Macedonia. Kenny played very solidly in the midfield, and if he keeps going like this will be there to stay.

★ The ground developments for North Barton Park are coming along according to schedule. The new grass was finally laid last week and the amenities should be started shortly. If all goes to plan the opening of the new stadium will be on August 2.

★ For the first time in nearly a month, the club was close to having its full squad back together for the game against southern neighbours Sutherland Shire.

IRISH CHAMPIONS SHELBOURNE MEET YOUNG SOCCEROOS

Writes DAVID COOPER

The Young Socceroos will be put to the test wen they take on the 1992 League of Ireland Champions, Shelbourne Football Club.

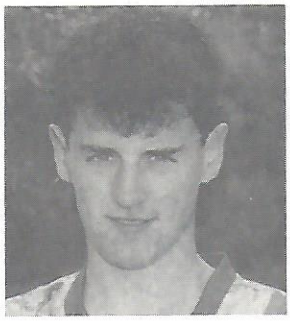
Shelbourne FC, who are based in Dublin, are the first Republic of Ireland soccer team to tour Australia.

The club, who are renowned for playing an attractive style of soccer, are scheduled to play three matches while in Australia.

Their first clash was against the ACT at Bruce Stadium, Canberra, on June 14, then they meet the Young Socceroos on Saturday 20 June at Gabbie Stadium, before travelling to Perth to take on Western Australia at Perry Lakes Stadium on June 24.

Founded in 1895, Shelbourne FC is one of the oldest and most distinguished soccer clubs in Ireland.

Located in the Ringsend and Sandymount areas of Dublin, the club took its name from Shelbourne Road, which is in the district.



Kevin Muscat

Over the years, twenty-two players have represented the Republic of Ireland first team, while playing for Shelbourne.

Some of these include Joe Haverty, Shelbourne's most capped player, Freddie Strahan, Paddy Roche, Mick Gannon, Billy Lacey, Harry Chatton, and Mick (Boxer) Foley.

Two players of their current squad have played first team internationally while playing with other sides. They are Pat Byrne when with Shamrock Rovers and Gary Howlett while playing with Brighton.

Players of note in the current squad are: Pat Byrne (Leicester City and Heart) Gary Howlett (Brighton, Bournemouth and York City), Gary Hawlock and Mick Byrne (both of Hudderfield Town) and Mark Rutherford.

Apart form being League of Ireland Champions, Shelbourne have also played a host of friendly matches, including a 1-1 draw with Arsenal, Aston Villa and Leeds United.

The game against Shelbourne FC is seen as an excellent opportunity for the Young Socceroos to play against quality opposition in preparation for the World Youth Championship to be held in Australia in March 1993.

Control of the squad is in the hands of NSW coach, Raul Blanco, who will soon be off to West Adelaide.

Potts Park Thriller CYPRUS UPSET AMBITIOUS CENTRAL COAST

By PAUL GOODWIN

The game was switched from Wentworth Park late in the week, but the surface was just as good and provided excellent soccer.

A penalty in the 3rd minute by Jason Gribble set the Coasties up for a good afternoon, but in the 34th the other Jason, Bennett, was too quick for the defence in latching onto a back pass and picking his spot for the equaliser.

Cyprus were behind again when Rod Brown went off on a solo run in the 49th, but while Coast would have been expected to weather a late onslaught, they could not stop Cyprus posting two goals in the last eight minutes.

Mark Drysdale diverted a shot from Manuel Xipolitas into his net, and then George Foundas tidied up a cross from the player moments afterwards.

Meanwhile Auburn United recorded a 2-1 win at Petersham's expense at Mona Park, Glenn Jeffry's early goal being cancelled out by a volley from John Gregson in the 41st and a late header by Moon Kyung Kim wrapped up a fine win.

Mount Druitt, the other side who are ready to get another challenge going now, disposed of a poor Dulwich Hill outfit at Popondetta Park, 2-0.

Goals by Eddie Clune in the 20th and a penalty by Scott McArdle in the 66th were enough to do the trick for Town Rangers.

Granville Chile came out of a torrid encounter with West Wanderers with a 2-2 draw, four players on the day being hospitalised, though none were as a result of dangerous play.

Mark Moffett put away a lovely header in the 6th, but Alex Araujo was quick to reply for Granville in the 12th.

Scott McArdle ... penalty for Mt Druitt

Danny Cerjak burst through to head in a corner in the 52nd, but after missing several chances on the uneven surface at Garside Park, Wests succumbed to the magic of Araujo who turned the defence upside down in the 72nd.

Rodrigo Palominos sustained facial injuries when hitting the ground heavily after a challenge from behind, right near the end of the game.

He was unconscious for some time, but was chirpy again by Monday, when he was expected to undergo surgery for a damaged cheekbone.

Andy Ferris and Mark Mlinic also sustained concussion in the same match and an Under 19 player required stitches for a head wound.

Gladesville somehow survived in a 3-3 draw with Lemnos Allstars at Christie Park, getting all three goals from the boot of Bernie Voloder in the last twenty minutes, mainly with the assistance of Gerry Lepkowski, who created havoc in the Lemnos defence.

On Saturday Mount Pritchard had a solid 3-0 win over Liverpool at Ernie Smith Reserve.

A typical Ali Nagi header in the 33rd, a drive past at an unsighted Greg Woodhouse by Leo Pintos in the 73rd and a great header by Anthony Versi from a corner in the 79th spelt door for the home side.

The same day at Chopin Park Campbelltown took some time to subdue Polonia, but won 4-1, with three goals coming before the break.

Vernon Porter got his first hat-trick and Richie Celarc the other goal, while Polonia replied through Miro Mikulic.

Round 16 Results Liverpool City 0 Mount Pritchard 3 (Nagi, Pintos, Versi), Polonia 1 (Mikulic) Campbellt'n 4 (Porter 3 Celarc), Gladesville-Hby 3 (Voloder 3) Lemnos Allstars 3 (Usalj 2 A Williamson o.g.), Granville-Chile 2 (Araujo 2) W Wanderers 2 (Moffett, Cerjak) Mt Druitt 2 (Clune, McArdle pen) Dul Hill 0 Cyprus Utd 3 (Bennett, opponent o.g., Foundas) Central Coast 2 (Gribble pen, Brown), Auburn Utd 2 (Gregson, Kim) Petershm Lus 1 (Jeffrey).*

PREVIEW ROUND 17

Granville-Child will hope to have Andy Ferris on deck for the clash with Lemnos at Potts Park on Saturday, but will still be missing Pablo Gomez and Mark Abbi-Arrage, who are under suspension.

Lemnos will be without Simon Beaufils whose hamstring injury continues to give trouble, but Elias Augerinos may be back after a bout of 'flu.

Granville's recent revival should include another win on this occasion.

Cyprus United have managed to skip away a bit now and it would be expected of them to defeat Dulwich Hill at Arlington Oval.

The Madeira side are on the ropes after a mid-season purple patch and will be desperate for points. How can Cyprus lose this one?

Central Coast will play midweek against Campbelltown and the Sunday game with Polonia should yield another three points, which would leave them still within striking distance of the leaders.

Weariness might reduce that tally, but Campbelltown are more likely to do the damage than Polonia at this stage.

Auburn United are enjoying a good run at Mona Park and are steadily making some inroads near the top of the table.

They will find West Wanderers, 'the entertainers', tough and it should be a very even contest with perhaps a score draw to keep both camps happy.

At the Wills Ground Petersham are favoured to return to form with a win over Liverpool, while Mt Pritchard and Mr Druitt looks impossible to pick.

The Mounties are also getting good results, with Anthony Versi making a big impact.

Campbelltown and Gladesville at Lynwood Park is also one to savour and, sticking our neck out, we believe Gladesville can do the job.

Frank Lang has resigned after 3 1/2 yrs as Sydney Macedonia coach. Dennis Madden has been appointed in his place.

ADAMSTOWN, WESTON IN WARATAH CUP CLASH

KEITH GILMOUR writes

Adamstown and leading Coalfields side Weston clash in Round 6 of the NSW Waratah State Cup under the brilliant floodlights of Adamstown Oval next Wednesday night June 24 at 6.30pm.

These longtime rivals are certain to produce typical sparkling cup tie football, with Singleton and Sydney's West Wanderers meeting in the late game.

Two Canberra sides visit Seymour Shaw Park on the same night.

Canberra Olympic plays Pagewood Botany at 6.30pm, whilst Canberra City has a very difficult task against Canterbury Marrickville at 8.15pm.

Two double-headers last night (Wednesday) saw the Waratah State Cup begin to get down to the business end of the cup season.

At 6.30pm at Christie Park, Macquarie Park, top rating Warringah Dolphins met Dulwich Hill, whilst at 8.15pm Petersham turned out against Hills United, shock winners over ACT champions Tuggeranong in Canberra.

Bathurst 75, midway in NSW Division 2, had the awesome task of facing 1991 NSW premiers Sutherland Shire in the 8.15pm game at Seymour Shaw Park, Miranda, with Chile Sports up against Wayne Farnsworth's Mt Druitt Town at 6.30pm.

GLADESVILLE HORNSBY PLANS BRIGHT FUTURE

The injury toll has seen the Bears utilise many of the Under 19 squad, even if only as replacements.

Joe 'Pep' Degiralamo (19) commenced the year as a borderline starter for seconds but the unassuming youngster has been a starter in firsts for the last month and will be a handy squad member even when the side is back to full strength.

Troy Ellis (20) has his initial full firsts' game recently while others such as Owen Smith (19) and David Evans (17) have been gradually developed and given opportunities.

Add some of the younger more established players – such as Bernie Voloder (22), Gavin Booth (20) and Ian MacLennan (23) – plus the potential of both Steve Marando (20) and Kurt Morrison (20), who have had some first team exposure this year, and some excellent Youth League talent on the production line, and the club is very enthusiastic as to its future strength.

Neale Williamson – told by medics two years ago that his career was over – had been training with the Bears all year and felt good enough to offer to play "in emergency".

Neale ('Kenny')was called on to play a full match against Auburn United ..... a 'plan' to use him for only the first half hour backfired when two others were injured.

NED ZELIC SUPPORTS COUNTRY SOCCER

By ANISSA TANN (NSW Amateur Federation Development Officer)

Ned Zelic, the hero of the Olyroos over Holland, recently undertook a hectic publicity campaign which included six TV appearances, eight radio spots and numerous Australian and overseas newspaper articles.

All in the space of three days after a 28 hour flight!

I was fortunate enough to secure Ned for a few hours so that he could sign balls, posters and shirts for the NSW Amateurs.

As usual Ned was the perfect gentleman and willingly gave his valuable time free to fulfil any request I gave him before he jetted off to South America with the Socceroos.

Ned said: "I have no hassles signing for the NSW Amateurs as, coming from Canberra, I am almost a country kid.

I know how much work this body does for the youngsters out there who love the game, and can't get to see the National teams in action."

The first Association to benefit from Ned was Mitchell in the Central West.

Although Ned could not make the trip to Bathurst he gave me a personal handwritten letter to take to the soccer fans there.

I got to know Ned over the last few years, starting when I used to play against him when he was at the AIS when the Female Socceroos were in camp, and more recently when we had worked on ASF promotions for RooBall.

It was really pleasing to see that he had not changed one bit although he found the media attention exciting.

He said; "I enjoyed doing all the interviews although I was really nervous at first.

"Let's face it, I've complained we don't get soccer on the TV or the back page of the papers so I really have to support any opportunity we get to take Soccer to the people."

I told Ned I would write this article for Super Soccer and he was delighted as he reads it every week to keep up with the news on the club he supports, Canberra Metros.

One of the first questions that Ned had when I met him at the airport was "How come Canberra lost to St George . . . Did you go?

"T.G (Tony Giannasca the Canberra goalkeeper) must have had a nightmare."

Ned Zelic, Australia's Olympic Games soccer captain, exchanges pennants with Aurthur Numan of Holland at Sydney Football Stadium

Although we will only see Ned Zelic play in Australia in the green and gold or on TV overseas, I don't think he will change.

He'll still be a great player who loves the game at every level, and genuinely cares about soccer in Australia.

Australia can be really proud that such players as Ned have been nurtured through the ranks.

SUPER SOCCER regrets the delay in supply of last week's issue in some cases, due to unexpected circumstances.

STARS VISIT CENTRAL COAST SCHOOLS

Through to June 26, the NSWASF promotions and development team is visiting the Central Coast area.

The two week stay within the area follows this itinerary:

18 Gosford East Prmary 9-3, 19 Erina Heights 9-3, 22 Terrigal High 9-11, Kincumber 1-2.30, 23 Gosford Public, 24 Kariong Public 9.30 - 12.00, 25 Henry Kendall 1.00 - 2.30, 26 Ourimbah Public.

Already visits have been made to Bateau Bay, Terrigal and Kahibah.

Those lucky schools have been chosen to receive a special visit.

By way of an 80 minute soccer clinic these schools will meet high profile Socceroos and receive instructions on the basic aspects of the game.

☆ Dulwich Hill welcomed back collarbone victim Kevin Gaffney against Central Coast in the Under 19 fixture. He came through his first serious run without mishap and is sure to be in demand for a swift return to senior duty.

☆ The Maderia Under 19s are coached by Zaya Jabraiel, the defensive member of the 1st Grade team who also coached Assyria in the Ethnic Cup. Unusual to see a player leave the bench unattended in order to get ready for his own game, but the formula is working as Dulwich Hill's reserves are enjoying a top season. Also in that Under 19 side is a 16 year old former Apia player Ivo de Jesus whose father was a star with Sporting Lisbon a few years back.

☆ Marc Prospero is another on the comeback trail, a stress fracture has been limiting his appearances this term, but his goal for Central Coast against Madeira at Arlington augers well. The former Ku-ring-gai junior has been a good player for The Coasties,and if he can force his way back he would be a big asset in the run home.

☆ Petersham are one club who are always ready to give promising youngsters a chance, despite their reputation for having a very experienced look about them. There are three NSW schoolboy reps with the Lusitanos outfit, Jason Lal, who made his 1st Grade debut against Granville, Mark Borja and Warren Hayward, who travels down from Penrith to train.

☆ Liverpool boss Doug Utjesenovic was pleased with the goal by Con Anagastopoulos which yielded a draw against Mt Druitt. The former Canterbury player, now 21, is a shift worker and can only train once a week, hence his limited senior opportunities. Utjesenovic is going to try to arrange out of hours training to get the boy into condition and he would then have a chance to press for regular selection.

SIMON BOYER – THE VILLAIN TURNED HERO IN DIV 2

Compiled by BOB FANNING

Villain two weeks ago, hero this week. That's the tale behind the North Ryde State League 2nd Division player Simon Boyer, who led his team to a 3-1 win over Western District Hellas.

Boyer, who was sent off in the first couple of minutes against Bankstown two weeks ago, scored two superb first half goals and laid on the third, to help restore the faith that coach Les DeCelis had in him.

Since Boyer's sending off, North Ryde had not been able to score, so DeCelis had no hesitation restoring him into the starting team, to which he responded magnificently.

The first half was all North Ryde as they continually attacked at every opportunity.

Boyer's first goal came in the twelfth minute after he received a pass from Australian Youth player, Ante Milicic, to which Boyer cut back inside and his drive beat the outstretched hands of the goalkeeper.

Later, Boyer found himself on the edge of the penalty area. He weaved his way past three defenders and drove the ball under the Hellas keeper.

New tactics by Western District in the second half saw the North Ryde defence become a little unsettled.

However, it wasn't until the seventieth minute that Hellas finally broke through when North Ryde failed to clear properly and a Hellas blasted the ball into the roof of the net from six metres.

North Ryde then sealed the game with ten minutes to go when a corner was placed beautifully by Boyer for Milicic to score his first goal for the club with a looping header.

Fraser Park came back to the winning way on Saturday against a very impressive Concord Juniors side.

Concord started off the better and had tested Fraser Park goalkeeper George Psaroudis on numerous occasions.

However it was Fraser who took the initiative when a move down the right saw John Skotadis power his header past the Concord goalkeeper.

Fraser then made it 2-0 six minutes into the second half when, from a Tony Mihaljevic corner, Trevor Ormrod made no mistake.

Concord continued to apply some pressure but could not find a way past Psaroudis, who was outstanding for Fraser.

Nineveh Eagles are on a high at the moment after demolishing Hills United on Saturday at St Johns Park.

Nineveh have now moved into joint third position along with North Ryde and have both Belmore Hercules and Fraser Park in their sights over the next few fixtures.

The build up to Nineveh's fine run has been the return to form of several key players and the acquisition from Sydney Croatia of Tony Popovic.

This blending has seen a complete early form reversal and some brilliant goals to boot.

On Saturday, Hills had no answer to the Nineveh outfit, and it was only some fine goalkeeping and dogged defence which kept the scoreline down to 3-0.

With this result Hills have now slumped to equal bottom, surely not the position suited to a district of this class and history.

Belmore Hercules kept up their impressive run this season by taking care of Uni of NSW in easy fashion to win 4-0 at Punchbowl Oval.

This win keeps Belmore eight points clear at the head of the table and a good buffer with only 10 games remaining.

Uni, who have always been competitive this season, struggled to come to terms with the bumpy pitch and the good teamwork of Belmore.

Penrith again proved that they are a force in this competition by defeating Port Hacking 2-1 at Seymour Shaw.

Port Hacking have lost a little of their drive of late and are also feeling the effects of injuries and a heavy Waratah Cup campaign.

Bathurst took another step closer to the top four, defeating Bankstown at Stuart Street.

Bankstown have also been one of the most improved sides recently, and fine keeping from Dave Thomas kept them in the hunt for a share of the points.

FOUR CLUBS TIE FOR DIVISION THREE LEADERSHIP

The top of the table traffic jam continues in Division 3, as Spanish Club, Trasandinos, Colo Colo and Pagewood Botany are all on 26 points after last weekend's matches.

While these teams are making the running for the top spot, Prospect United and SSC Zagreb are hot on their tails, if any of them slips up.

Pagewood Botany continues to lead the way in the 2nd grade competition, ahead of Hajduk Rangers, who scored an impressive 4-0 win against Orange Waratahs.

In Division 4 the top seven teams are within four points of each other, at the start of the halfway mark of the competition.

Balmain surprised previous leader Abruzzi 3-1 at Lambert Park, to join them in the lead, whilst Lithgow Workmens were held to a 0-0 draw by the fast improving Sydney University, to leave them a point behind the leaders.

CSI Schofields extended Fogolar Furlan before going down 2-1, while New Welcome Sports held GNS United to a 1-1 draw.

Waratah Cup kings Chile Sports were beaten 2-1 at home by Springwood.

Chile meet 1st Division high flyers Mt Druitt at Seymour Shaw to carry the hopes of all the lower divisions in the cup.

In 2nd grade, GNS United remain one of only four teams to be still undefeated.

In fact they have won all their games so far, and are currently leading from Abruzzi, who beat Balmain on the weekend 2-1, for the second spot position.

Round 12 saw Division 5 leaders Greystanes maintain their great seasonal form with a 3-1 win over St Josephs at Rydalmere.

The battle for second spot saw Maccabi Hakoah come away with the points after a 3-1 win over Gladesville United, while Pontian Eagles and Phoenix Celtic kept in touch with the top four with solid wins.

The mid-table clash between Calabria and URMI went 4-2 in favour of the former while Fairfield Eagles and Western Suburbs played out an exciting 3-3 draw.

Phoenix Celtic scored another impressive win on the weekend to maintain their lead over Sydney Cretans in the 2nd grade competition, with St Josephs hard on their heels in third place.

Glebe Wanderers are still top of the table in Division 6, following their 3-0 win over Punchbowl District. However 2nd placed South Liverpool kept the pressure on with a 6-0 win at the expense of Kogarah Waratahs.

With a game in hand they are hot favourites to soon grab the lead.

Reserve grade leaders Marrickville Devils continue to leave all the others in their wake with another outstanding 5-1 win at the expense of Rockdale Youth.

Marconi Lead in NSW Women's Soccer League

At the halfway stage in the NSW Women's Soccer League, Coca Cola SL giants Marconi's women's team has taken the lead in the competition.

This is the first year that Marconi have fielded a women's side, and as usual have taken to the task in a professional manner.

They recruited Anissa Tann, the female Socceroos' captain to be the player coach of the team, and gave her orders to recruit a squad of players who were ambitious and entertaining.

This she did, and the squad, after a rigorous and scientific pre-season, has blended into an entertaining outfit.

Entertaining to the point where Marconi official George Streeter states: " Over 250 people are now attending the womens' home games and word is spreading that these girls can really play."

The team, after their recent win over Western Districts Hellas, has topped the league and in fact are the youngest team in the competition with the average age of only 19.

The oldest player is player/coach Tann and the youngest is NSW Super Skills squad member Spinner at 13.

The performances of the team has earned reviews from leading Soccer personalities, including Socceroo Tom McCulloch who said "The team is incredibly well disciplined and organised and I'd hate to be tackled by either Eston or Yardin."

Anissa Tann

Brian Ellem of Apia: "I've been really impressed with their midfield of Haddon and Bartlett. One has got great vision and the other makes sure she dominates the midfield."

Coach Tann (the only female coach in the league) said: "The Marconi Club has been great to the players. They have treated us as equals and both Berti Mariani and now Frank Arok have been supportive and enthusiastic towards us.

"I've made sure that the players chosen were serious about soccer (over 70 girls trialled), as this is such a professional club.

"There is a place for social soccer – however it's just not here.

"The support from within the club hierarchy such as Keith Charles, Vince Morizzi and Tony Labbozzetta has been great.

"Our job now is to stay at the top." The full squad is: Tann (Female Socceroo) Bartlett (Female Socceroo) Yardin, Haddon, Weston, Hornsby, Patterson, Misuraka (Australia Youth) Watson, Spinner, Smith, Redding, Lois Lane (NSW State Age Teams).

Southern & Eastern Take a Point from Macquarie City

By IAN MARRIOTT

Southern and Eastern under 12 UMBRO junior league squad came up with a shock result over the weekend when they managed to take a point from the front runners Macquarie City.

It was only the third point the Newcastle team had dropped and a valuable one for Southern, as it enables them to maintain contact with the top four in the Northern Conference.

Meanwhile in the U11s Granville continue to prove themselves just too good, and after nine rounds remain on maximum points.

Losses to both Southern Districts and St George in the U11 Southern conference has allowed both Illawarra and Sutherland to close the gap on the top four teams and they are now in with an outside chance of getting through.

Canterbury 12s also came up with a good result by restricting Southern Districts to a draw, and St George have lost their top spot after drawing with Sutherland, allowing Illawarra to move to leadership.

Southern Districts U17 team pulled off one of the biggest shocks of the round when they were able to overcome Blacktown City, who are now in grave danger of being forced out of the top four after looking like minor premiership material for much of the year.

All three front runners in the U13s dropped points over the weekend, Marconi to Sydney Croatia, Melita to Bankstown and Illawarra being well and truly beaten by Sutherland, which has kept them in the running for the semi finals.

Sydney Croatia were very happy with their performances in each of the age groups, when they secured draws in all four against Marconi.

Sutherland 14s secured their first win of the season at the expense of Illawarra.

Bankstown in action

In second division Southern and Eastern have moved into top place in the 13s, and will be looking to become the first UMBRO youth league team to score 50 goals for the season this weekend when they take on third placed Granville in what should be a great match.

Avala 14s celebrated their first win of the season on Sunday when they met Macquarie City, who are yet to record a win.

Manly have begun to consolidate their position at the top of the club championship ladder, but Granville are still involved in a neck and neck battle with both Macarthur and Nepean.

In the first division club championship Marconi have had their lead cut by Saints.

Apia are now in relegation trouble along with Sydney Croatia, who are beginning to make a move.

Sutherland is on 44 points along with Croatia and Bankstown on 38 at the bottom.
